

Pentiddy Natural Burials - Terms & Conditions

These terms and conditions have been devised to ensure that Pentiddy Natural Burials (PNB) remains a peaceful, beautiful and natural site.

The site will be maintained to ensure full access, whilst maintaining its wild nature. It is a natural burial ground and is managed as wood-pasture. This will include at times hay-making and grazing by sheep. In the longer term it will be left to become a native woodland.

We ask that when you are visiting the burial ground you are sensitive to others, enabling everyone to enjoy the beauty and tranquillity of the site. All dogs to be kept on leads and all litter taken away with you.

Please read all Terms and Conditions carefully prior to signing your agreement to this document.

If you are not comfortable with conditions detailed below, a natural burial here may not be right for you.

You, as the plot holder agree to the following:

- To use a fully biodegradable coffin/shroud made with natural materials and not plastic-lined.
- Not to embalm the body.
- Not to clear undergrowth or bring soil or additional materials to the site.
- Not to plant anything without approval from the directors of Pentiddy Natural Burials.
- Not to place any permanent signs or features on the plot.
- Not to leave plastic coverings or artificial flowers/ribbons on the plot.
- To PNB Ltd storing and using your personal data according to the company's policies

Pentiddy Natural Burials agrees to the following:

- To maintain an accurate map with all plots marked on it for ease of location
- To keep a Burial Register
- To ensure that the maintenance of the site allows free and open access.
- To manage graves where necessary by adding or removing material to maintain a natural gradient.
- To abide by the policies and code of conduct of the Association of Natural Burial Grounds.
- To ensure that provision for the long term security of the site and the business has been made.
- To ensure a natural and beautiful site by maintaining these policies without prejudice.
- To store/use your personal data within the confines stated in our policies.

These terms and conditions do not create or imply any right of exclusive occupation or any freehold interest in the land by you as the plot holder. You will be informed of any change of contact details to keep your records updated, and it is your responsibility to inform us of any changes of contact details. If after 30 years from the date of purchase we cannot, with all reasonable effort, contact the plot owner then the plot will be forfeited and made available for re-sale.

Complaints Procedure

If you are in any way dissatisfied with the service you have received, please firstly contact Pentiddy Natural Burials and every effort will be made to deal with your complaint.

If you still feel your concerns have not been dealt with please then contact The Association of Natural Burial Grounds: www.naturaldeath.org.uk